

Community-based support services for individuals with developmental disabilities with a history of forensic involvement

WHO WE ARE

Founded in 2010, Omelagah, Inc. is a family-owned community-based organization that provides support services to individuals with developmental disabilities with a history of forensic involvement. We are passionate in our belief that people with developmental disabilities who have been involved in the criminal justice system deserve an opportunity to live productive, law abiding lives in the least restrictive community setting.
